My Prayer as Chaplain 'I Am Humbled'

I come into these walls

Unknown of what the day will hold.
Uncertain of where God
Will guide my path.

I have no idea
Where I will go
Or what I will do,
When I walk these halls.

I know I am called here
For those in despair,
For those in celebration,
And for those in grief.

I am called to be here for you,
And I am humbled.

I am humbled by these moments.
When I enter a room,
For God has asked me to.

I am a presence, a healing touch,
A comforting word, or a moment of grace.

I am humbled by these moments.
As I enter these walls,
For God has asked me to.

May the Sacred surround us always.
Amen

The School Chaplain

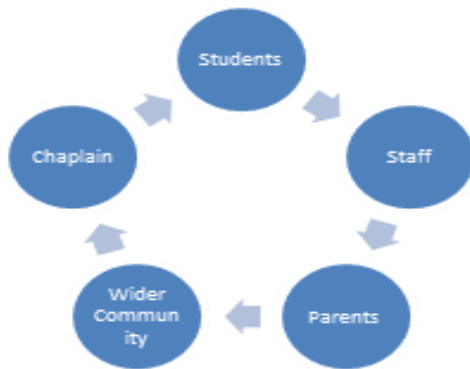

Heywood
Community School

Here at HCS, our ethos seeks to awaken spirituality in all members of the school community. It strives to establish our school as a witness to the reign of God and the gospel values and will nurture the Christian faith through RE classes, annual retreats and through providing opportunities for spiritual engagement while at the same time demonstrating a spirit of tolerance of the religious beliefs of others, facilitating them in whatever way possible in the practices of their own faiths. In living the ethos the school will raise awareness, develop a concern and support for the vulnerable and disadvantaged in society. It will promote an awareness of justice and equality and establish a positive attitude towards the social inclusion of minority groups in a multi-cultural society.
